

Peace By Piece Newsletter

March 5, 2020

Bee will be at Mission del Sol Presbyterian Church at 1565 W. Warner Rd in Tempe.

Monthly Bees are held the 1st Thursday of each month.

General Guild lines for pet beds.

We don't take scraps for pet beds. We only provide the covers.

Filling for pet beds:

Please use small pieces of fabric or batting. (not scrapes)

No threads or trim such as rickrack or lace

No paper products, paper towels or tissue.

No trash, elastic or rubber bands.

No pins, needles, staples or tape.

We will have a Free Table this month. One's trash maybe another's treasure.

Attendance 14

Raffle $37.00

Finished Tops 38

Kits 262

Donated Quilts 80

Inception Total 8084

50 ways to HIDE YOUR FABRIC 11-20

11. Store it in a Rubbermaid tub. Mark as women's clothes
12. Store in plain sight, possibly as a dresser scarf. Say it is a new style.
13. Hang as a shower curtain. He won't know the difference.
14. Use as a curtain for a window on the shady side of the house.
15. Place between sheet and comforter on the bed for extra warmth.
16. Repeat with teenager's beds, but fabric may need to be washed frequently.
17. Hid fabric in closet behind and in shoes. Men never look at a women's shoes unless shapely legs are in them.
18. Use as a table tablecloth.
19. Use smaller pieces as place mats.
20. Put in closed box under sink marked "cleaning supplies." That should keep him out.

To all those who like to read. There is a neat series about quilters & quilting by Jennifer Chiaverini. There are about 20 books in the series.

Any questions I can be reached at galasquilting@gmail.com.

Please send homework request to galasquilting@gmail.com.

Gala Reiman

Coordinator

