

FLANNEL QUILT

INFANT or TODDLER Quilt

Can be made in two sizes. Infant (34x42) and Toddler (42x42).

This uses a quilt as you go technique. When sewn together as directed it will only need a binding to finish. NO QUILTING NEEDED.

Sew 4 rows of 5 squares for INFANT quilt or 5 rows of 5 squares for TODDLER quilt.

Place 1st strip of backing right side up. Layer 2nd strip of backing right side down. Place 1st row of squares right side up. Place 2nd row of squares right side down.

See example below.

Pin along one long edge and sew all four layers together on the pinned edge.

Pull outside layers up so all wrong sides are together. Iron. This completes two rows.

Layer third row: Lay 1 backing strip right side up. Now lay completed rows from above on top with backing layer right side down. Make sure backing strips are right sides together. Next lay row of squares right side down over completed rows. Make sure pieced rows are right sides together.

Pin along long edge and sew.

Pull newly sewn layers up so wrong sides are together. Iron. Three rows complete.

Repeat until all rows are sewn.

Square up.

Apply binding.
